

Act Like a Character

Directions to Develop a Character through Acting

- Select a book you have read and make a list of the characters.
- Go through the list and explore how each one would stand, walk, look for something, and talk
- Find the character you enjoy playing the most
- Spend time making more choices like what kind of animal they are like, where they are from, what happened to them before the story began

For extra fun: Get a cup or other prop and a chair and explore how the character would hold the prop and how they would sit
